Ken's practice focuses on general corporate and securities matters, corporate governance, finance, M&A and international business transactions, and securities laws compliance for investment advisers and various pooled products.

Prior to joining Morse, Ken's practice focused on counseling clients on a wide variety of regulatory, compliance, and corporate matters, as well as fund and adviser boards on governance and fiduciary oversight matters. He has worked in the Investment Management Groups of Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP and Dechert LLP, and in compliance/regulatory functions at a Boston-based hedge fund and at a Boston-based investment adviser/fund complex.

Ken serves on the advisory board of One World Strong Foundation Inc., a non-profit organization founded by victims of the 2013 Boston Marathon bombings. Outside of the office, he enjoys exercising, hiking, biking, and fishing with his wife Erin and family.
