

Achieving Success: Advice and Inspiration from an All-Women Panel

November 21, 2019

Join us for Morse's 2nd annual all-women panel featuring a CEO who has recently completed a successful exit, one of the top female investors in New England, and a general counsel responsible for all of her company's worldwide legal affairs.

Three impressive women, each having played a vital role in the growth of their respective companies, share personal experiences and insight into their professional growth.
