Attorney Laurie Burlingame Joins Morse

November 17, 2025

Morse is pleased to welcome Attorney Laurie Burlingame to the firm. Laurie joins our Corporate Practice Group as a Member.

Laurie arrives from Morgan Lewis, where she was a partner in the Corporate Business Transactions and Life Sciences practice. She brings extensive experience representing companies and investors across the life sciences and technology industries in corporate, ECVC, M&A, licensing, and commercial agreement matters. Her clients include pharmaceutical, medical device, diagnostics, biological materials and tools, AI, and other technology companies, and she also represents venture capital firms and hedge funds in connection with their portfolio investments.

Before her time at Morgan Lewis, Laurie spent 17 years at Goodwin Procter LLP. She is Chambers-ranked in Life Sciences and serves on the Board of Directors of Families for Depression Awareness and Girls Inc. of Boston and Lynn. Laurie writes,

> "I am delighted to join Morse because of its dynamic and entrepreneurial practice, diverse clients, and talented colleagues. The Firm's well-regarded corporate team delivers innovative, business-driven results for its clients, which aligns perfectly with my own approach to client relationships. I look forward to leveraging my advanced degrees in science and business as well as my numerous years of previous law firm experience to advise existing and new clients in all stages of the business life cycle."

We invite you to contact Laurie directly.
