

Attorneys Earn IAPP Certified Information Privacy Professional Credentials

September 13, 2018

WALTHAM, MA – Jamie N. Dalton and Ryan J. Perry have earned the ANSI-accredited Certified Information Privacy Professional/United States (CIPP/US) credential through the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP).

Jamie is a member of the Firm's Litigation Practice Group and handles litigation and advising related to the privacy and data security requirements for the ever-increasing amounts of information held by companies. Ryan is a member of the Firm's Corporate and IP Licensing & Strategic Alliances Practice Groups and assists companies with compliance under various privacy and data security regulatory regimes, and works with clients in crafting privacy policies and terms and conditions.

Jamie and Ryan join intellectual property attorney Faith D. Kasparian in obtaining the CIPP/US certification.

The CIPP is the global standard in privacy certification. Developed and launched by the IAPP with leading subject matter experts, the CIPP is the world's first broad-based global privacy and data protection credentialing program. The CIPP/US demonstrates a strong foundation in U.S. private-sector privacy laws and regulations and understanding of the legal requirements for the responsible transfer of sensitive personal data to/from the U.S., the EU and other jurisdictions.

Congratulations to Jamie and Ryan.
