Elizabeth Resteghini Joins Morse

June 21, 2018

WALTHAM, MA – Morse is pleased to announce that Elizabeth A. Resteghini has joined the Firm's Corporate Department as an Associate.

As a corporate associate, Liz guides her clients through mergers and acquisitions of all sizes, financings for startup and emerging growth companies, and venture capital investments. She graduated from Northeastern University School of Law, where she was a SJC Rule 3:03 certified student attorney for the Community Business Clinic, successfully representing small business startups, advising them on formation of entity and drafting their related startup documents. Liz also served as a law clerk for the Honorable Chief Justice Patti B. Saris of the U.S. District Court.

> "I was a law clerk at Morse during law school," Liz notes, "and I loved the large amount of corporate deals, from financings to mergers and acquisitions, that the Firm does on a regular basis. I'm thrilled to join the Firm as an associate where I look forward to counseling clients throughout all stages of their business deals."

We invite you to contact Liz directly.
