

Morse Welcomes New Employment Law Attorney

April 01, 2019

WALTHAM, MA – Morse is pleased to welcome Matthew L. Mitchell to the Firm. Matt joins the Firm's Employment Law Group as a Member.

As Chair of the Firm's Employment Law Group, Matt is experienced in the broad range of complex laws that affect the relationships between employers and employees, including wage and hour, noncompetition, employee leave, employee classification, independent contractor, and anti-discrimination laws.

"Morse's leading position in the marketplace is due to the excellence of its attorneys and to the Firm's innovative approach to legal services. It is my privilege to join this exceptional team, and I am focused on helping to build on the accomplishments of Morse's dynamic practice."

In his practice, Matt is focused on providing practical advice to employers on how they may achieve business goals through the effective management of their workforces. Matt serves as a trusted advisor to private-sector businesses, educational institutions, start-up and emerging technology companies, and non-profit organizations.

We invite you to contact Matt directly.
