May 27, 2025

Morse is proud to share that Lisa Warren has been named a Top Managing Partner by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly for the second year in a row! This feature highlights attorneys who continue to enhance their practices and surpass their clients' expectations, all while managing the day-to-day responsibilities of the Firm.

Lisa has been the Managing Member of Morse for over ten years and holds additional leadership roles within the firm as the head of our Patent Practice Group and Chair of the Specialty Department. A registered Patent Attorney, Lisa brings extensive experience advising clients with regard to the development and management of their patent portfolios across diverse areas of life science technologies — from biologics to medical devices.
