

Morse Named a Best Women-Led Law Firm by MA Lawyers Weekly

November 05, 2024

We're pleased to announce that Morse has been named one of MA Lawyers Weekly's Best Women-Led Law Firms! This program recognizes successful firms across Massachusetts founded or currently led by women.

The article highlights some of our distinguished women leaders, noting their achievements both within and beyond Morse – and that's just the tip of the iceberg! We're proud to be a 25% women-owned firm, with women holding many of our legal and administrative leadership positions. Our terrific team of both men and women delivers exceptional legal services with integrity, innovation, and a passion for empowering others.

We are so proud of the amazing team of women here at Morse, and this recognition is a testament to their dedication, creativity, and unwavering commitment. Please join us in celebrating their incredible leadership and wishing them continued success!
