Morse Serves as Counsel to Onum Technology in Acquisition by CrowdStrike

September 25, 2025

Morse is pleased to announce that its client Onum Technology, a leader in real-time telemetry pipeline management, has been acquired by CrowdStrike. This acquisition strengthens CrowdStrike's Falcon Next-Gen SIEM platform, eliminating onboarding challenges and streamlining detection capabilities.

Onum's technology simplifies how businesses handle and extract value from their data, empowering IT and security teams to act faster and make informed, real-time decisions. By combining Onum's speed, efficiency, and cost-saving capabilities with CrowdStrike's Falcon Next-Gen SIEM, customers will gain access to high-quality, filtered data — giving them greater control over their entire data ecosystem.

Morse attorneys Scott Bleier, Mary Beth Kerrigan, and Elizabeth Resteghini, served as counsel to Onum Technology. They were joined in this transaction by Morse team members Dave Czarnecki, Rebecca Alperin, Ryan Perry, Kevin Olson, Jen Fuller, Mike Cavaretta, Faith Kasparian, Taimoor Choudhry, Justin Emery, Matt Mitchell, and Demetrios Mandilas.

Morse was pleased to collaborate on this transaction with the wonderful lawyers at Across Legal, Spain's leading law firm for entrepreneurs and high-growth startups. The Across Legal team was led by Ignacio Lacasa with invaluable support from Victor Martin Ratia, Borja Vallejo Daniele, Jose Luis Gonzalo, Carles Meseguer Lopez, Malcolm Bain, and Gonzalo de Dios.

> Scott says, "The fast growth of Onum from Series A to exit is a testament to the hard work and dedication of the company's core, founding team – Pedro Castillo, Pedro Tortosa and Lucas Varela – and visionary investors such as Insight Partners, Dawn Ventures and Kibo Ventures. This was a fast-paced transaction that required seamless integration between legal and business teams in the US and Europe. Morse is delighted to have played a role in this exciting deal and looks forward to what is next for the company as part of the CrowdStrike family."

Additional details on the investment can be found in CrowdStrike's press release.

Morse focuses exclusively on the core legal services that businesses need to succeed, helping businesses of all sizes — from startups to Fortune 1000 companies — in the service areas of corporate, intellectual property, licensing, employment, taxation, and litigation.
