M&A Deal: Morse is pleased to announce that it served as counsel to Sirius Education Solutions, a Texas-based publisher specializing in supplemental TEKS-based instructional materials, in its acquisition by MasteryPrep. This strategic acquisition brings together two leaders in education to form a dynamic academic support system for Texas schools, offering even more tools to help students thrive throughout their educational journey.

Sirius provides both digital and print solutions that drive measurable improvements on STAAR assessments, with resources covering all 20 STAAR-tested subjects for Grades 3–12. Committed to providing high-quality, accessible materials to every classroom, Sirius now joins forces with MasteryPrep's scale and proven solutions. Together, they form the only comprehensive, Texas-specific pipeline from STAAR achievement to college and career readiness.
