Morse Welcomes Litigation Associate Paige Zacharakis

September 14, 2020

WALTHAM, MA – Morse is pleased to announce that Paige K. Zacharakis has joined the Firm's Litigation Department as an Associate.

Paige's practice focuses primarily on business litigation and commercial civil disputes. In addition, she'll also be assisting clients with securities litigation, intellectual property litigation, and employment disputes.

> "I am very excited to join the Morse team and to continue to provide a catered approach to my clients' legal matters, directly aligning my practice with the core values for which Morse is known."

Paige graduated from Northeastern University School of Law. During law school, she served as a law clerk for several firms and was a Judicial Intern with the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts. Prior to joining Morse, Paige practiced at Pithie & Associates, where she focused on construction law and business litigation matters.

We invite you to contact Paige directly.
