

Morse Welcomes Rebecca Alperin to the Firm; Adds ERISA Practice

February 09, 2022

WALTHAM, MA – Morse is pleased to welcome Rebecca Alperin to the Firm. Rebecca joins the Firm's Tax Practice Group as a Member and heads our new Employee Benefits and ERISA Practice.

With the addition of Rebecca Alperin, Morse is excited to announce the expansion of its tax practice and capabilities. Rebecca brings more than 25 years of experience advising human resource and c-suite professionals on compliance with the complex regulations governing employee benefits, executive compensation, and ERISA matters. Rebecca's practice straddles the intersection of employee benefits, tax, and employment and expands the depth of the Firm's expertise in those areas. Through the collective wisdom of our attorneys, the Firm is well positioned to help our clients achieve their business objectives.

"I am thrilled to join a firm that has stayed true to its original founding principles – providing services that business clients need at the highest levels of the legal profession. The expansion of the Firm's tax practice to the areas of employee benefits and ERISA strengthens the Firm's ability to serve its clients in today's competitive landscape. I look forward to working alongside a group of attorneys who are as talented and innovative as the clients they counsel."

Rebecca's practice focuses on the primary three pillars of employee benefits – qualified retirement plans, health and welfare plans, and fiduciary matters. Rebecca also collaborates with the Firm's transactional lawyers to advise on matters such as the integration and termination of employee benefit plans in the context of corporate mergers, acquisitions, and dispositions.

We invite you to contact Rebecca directly.
