

WEBINAR: True or False – Do you know your core privacy principles?

January 19, 2023

This webinar has passed, but check out the recap!

The Morse Women Attorneys Webinar Series resumes in February with a session focused on the basics of privacy law. Watch for additional sessions in 2023, each focusing on an area of law essential to the business lifecycle, start to exit and everything in between.

On Thursday, February 9, Faith Kasparian and Ann O'Rourke will host an interactive 'true or false' session that will get you up-to-speed on data privacy basics. This program will provide an overview of the U.S. and EU privacy law landscapes and describe the core principles that underlie most privacy laws. All are welcome!
