An experienced corporate and business attorney, Mary Beth's practice focuses on representing technology-based companies from formation through liquidity event.

Her practice includes advising clients with respect to angel financings, venture capital financings, and mergers and acquisitions. She also provides general corporate advice to her clients on such matters as capital structure, corporate governance, shareholder agreements, equity and executive compensation, licensing agreements, joint ventures, strategic alliances, and other intellectual property matters. In addition to representing companies, Mary Beth also represents venture capital funds and other institutional investors in connection with their investments in portfolio companies.

Mary Beth is a current member of the firm's Advisory Committee, a former member of the Associate Committee, and previously chaired the Start-up and Venture Capital Practice Group.
