Attorney Taimoor Choudhry specializes in corporate law, with experience in mergers and acquisitions and private equity transactions. He provides comprehensive legal guidance to clients on entity formations and structuring transactions in a tax-efficient manner while advising on potential federal tax implications.

With a strong background in U.S. federal taxation, Taimoor is adept at navigating complex tax issues that arise during mergers, acquisitions, and reorganizations. He assists clients in structuring equity compensation for service providers and ensures compliance with state and federal corporate law requirements.

In addition to transaction-related matters, Taimoor advises companies on corporate governance, capitalization, employee compensation, and securities issuances, making him a valuable resource for businesses at every stage of their development.

Before joining Morse, Taimoor was a key member of the Mergers & Acquisitions Transaction group at a Big Four accounting firm in Boston. There he focused on advising clients throughout the merger and acquisition life cycle, gaining valuable experience in both buy-side and sell-side transactions.
